

The South Carolina Shakespeare Company Presents

The Performance Institute

Join us for our Spring 2010 Workshops!

Get the Role - Audition!: For all who want to nail that next audition! The workshop will cover the Do's and Don'ts of the audition process from what to wear, what pieces to choose, your resume, and feedback on your own specific choices. We will provide coaching on one of the staples of theatre performance: the monologue. We will walk through the audition process so that you feel prepared for your next opportunity to shine. Give yourself the ability to make an impression!

April 24, 2010; 9:00 AM -12:30 PM

Approaches to Acting: For those who have already found their passion for the stage and are ready to take their skill to the next level! We will examine specific techniques to strengthen your delivery, character work, script analysis, and vocal and physical development. We will help you develop an approach to building a character and discuss the process to help you go from the page to the stage! All levels welcome.

May 1, 2010; 9:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Shakespeare: Performing the Bard: For all that want to extend their acting range to include the art of Shakespeare. We will explore unique approaches specific to interpreting Shakespeare as well as techniques to clarify and deliver the heightened language of the bard. Techniques can be applied to approaching classical works. We will give you the tools you need to approach Shakespeare with confidence!

May 8, 2010; 9:00 AM - 12:30 PM
